Cocurricular Program Learning Outcomes: Assessment Tools

Program Name: Library Consultations   Date: 1/2021

Program Learning Outcomes Knowledge, skill, or behavior students can demonstrate upon completion	Measurement Tool	Timeline/Frequency of Assessment	Target	Review
1 Students can articulate new skills learned.	Post-consultation survey sent to students.	Surveys distributed to students monthly	75% of students can articulate at least one new skill learned.	Head of Research and Instruction will review results at the end of each fiscal year and discuss findings with colleagues to review program effectiveness. Data will be compiled in an annual report for the Dean of Libraries. Results will be posted on the library's website.
2 Students can apply new skills learned to their academic work.	Post-consultation survey sent to students.	Surveys distributed to students monthly.	90% of students report application of skills learned to their academic work.	Head of Research and Instruction will review results at the end of each fiscal year and discuss findings with colleagues to review program effectiveness. Data will be compiled in an annual report for the Dean of Libraries. Results will be posted on the Library's website.