THE HOLLAND COMMUNITY

Not many college campuses can say “just cross the street” when talking about the quickest way to get downtown, but we certainly can. Linked by both history and geography, the community of Holland and Hope College are more than just familiar friends, they’re family.

Labeled as one of “America’s Prettiest Towns” by Forbes Magazine, Holland boasts more than 150 downtown businesses featuring art galleries, clothing stores, specialty shops, restaurants, theaters, bakeries and hotels.

The city of Holland also hosts year-round activities in the downtown corridor like Live Mannequin Night and the popular Street Performer Series, not to mention parades all year long for holiday celebrations and festivals like the world-renowned Tulip Time.

Hope’s campus is a mere 10-minute drive to the beaches of Lake Michigan. Downtown Holland also has nearly 5 miles of heated streets and sidewalks to keep the paths clear during the winter months. Holland is only 30 miles from downtown Grand Rapids.
